What our clients say

Alice has been so supportive in my career and understands the human and professional side when I was looking for my next step. Alice is also an advisor and is excellent at being clear and to the point on what is needed through feedback but also ensuring the culture and fit for everyone makes sense. I would highly recommend Alice as a partner on both client and candidate side

Thank you again for your hard work on this project – I said at the start that it was a really important search and the appointment was pretty key to our plans and the Board were therefore watching the whole thing closely – so I’m delighted that we have secured Heidi for the role and both Hetal and I appreciate the work that went into the process. You have a very happy client.
